

Give your opinion

Asking for an opinion

What do you think?

What's your opinion about?

Giving an opinion

I think

In my opinion

I feel

I would say

Giving additional information

On top of that

What's more

Introducing a contrast

However

But on the other hand

Agreeing

I totally agree with that

That's true

Absolutely

You're right

Partially Agreeing

That may be true, but

You could be right, but

You're right up to a point, but

Disagreeing

I disagree

I'm not sure about that, to be honest

You must be joking!

Come on!

Sometimes it is more polite to disagree 'tentatively' with someone else's opinion, even if you do not agree at all. Can you think of any situations in which you would use this tactic more than usual?

<https://www.linguahouse.com/fr/esl-lesson-plans/general-english/for-and-against>

Match the English expressions with the French expressions

First of all	à mon avis
As well as this	à ma connaissance
In my opinion	tout d'abord
Generally speaking	ainsi que
As far as I know	plus précisément
To be exact	généralement

Match a line in A with a line in B

A	B
1 First of all	there are problems with the cost
2 As well as this,	I'd like to give my conclusion.
3 Finally,	I'd like to look at the general problem.

1 In my opinion	How do you educate people to have a better diet?
2 Generally speaking	fast food should be totally banned
3 The problem is	as a nation we don't do enough exercise.

1 As far as I know	I don't know the answer to this problem.
2 To be exact	there are five others like this
3 To be honest	This problem is quite common