

cyber security crossword (designed by:X, the Awesome!)

Across

3. A person attacks your computer with a bot – or remote control agent – by bypassing your firewall and antivirus software
5. The process of translating plaintext into ciphertext
6. the process of attempting to acquire sensitive information used for identity theft
9. software that displays advertisements; you may see popup ads or a small window or bar that displays ads in your browser.
10. software that records everything you type, then sends it off to whomever installed the software.
11. an adjective to describe your professor Xiaoyu

Down

1. a bridge between two computer networks
2. a network based on TCP/ICP protocols (an internet) belonging to an organization
4. to choose options in order to create a custom system
7. software installed on a network of computers without the owner's knowledge
8. A capability to limit network traffic between networks and/or information systems