An IT Man's Love Limerick

I thought that nobody'll make my heart race until I met you in the meatspace first time in life made me unplug and granted my heart a defrag

Too many ladies with bodies full of hot spots most of which are merely eye candies
I love you face without makeup just like how I use the least markup

Rumor's that you're geared up for France to build something new But life here will be full of WHOLS without you Don't leave my heart drifting in the hover state when you can well be my sprite

Forget what popular beliefs - that we IT men are boring Truth is, sometimes we'd even go phishing/pharming You're not the only one who has 5/6 cats for I am also seasoned with cat 5/6

With me, there'll never be bust-up together only happy bubbles pop-up With me, won't you get lost for I shall be your anchor With me, nor will you be thirst for I shall be your server

I miss you even when I'm sitting next to you and not out of the lust for your front/back end Besides the avidity to put my hardware into your software
I am also there for your IT mire

Don't run!
It's not yet the run-time
Stay calm!
Clutch my fingers during the down time

Should you leave, and I start to look for a new muse
All I'll get is just 404
Should you stay, and I'll stick to your side even if your heart only delivers me a 403

Here comes the question that I've been eager to say Would you be my Valentine's day?
