

Lisa Bu, How books can open your mind

(Feb. 2013)

Vocabulary :

1. Obedience
 - A sphere of authority or jurisdiction, esp. ecclesiastical.
 - Quality of willing to comply with orders.
 - The study of abstract object.
2. Epiphany
 - Any secondary phenomenon.
 - An inscription on a gravestone.
 - A sudden and striking insight.
3. Shattered
 - Narcotic drugs, esp. heroin or marijuana.
 - Broken in pieces.
 - To impair or destroy.

Questions :

1. What did her parents wanted her to become and why?
2. Why did she turned to books?
3. Where does her epiphany come from and what did it change?
4. Why comparative reading?
5. What did she compare (topics)?
6. What has books brought to her?
7. According to her what's the main purpose of a dream?