1 READING

- a Have you ever seen a film which made you want to go to the place where the film was made? b Read the article and try to complete each text with the name of the film and the country where it was made. Use the photos to help you.

Famous films that moved us (literally!)

Sometimes when you see a film, the sense of place is so strong that it makes you think 'I have to go there one day'. Here are three films, from three different decades, that have made thousands of people pack their cases and catch a plane. There's travel information too, in case you want to go there yourself...

1 The film is set in the 1990s on a small tropical island. It is based on a best-selling book by the young author Alex Garland and it was directed by the British director, Danny Boyle. It's about a young traveller (played by Leonardo DiCaprio) who finds a group of young people living on a beautiful, uninhabited island. But paradise soon turns into a nightmare...

Where was it filmed?

The film was shot on the beautiful island of Phi Phi Leh in _____, which is now visited by more than a million tourists every year. Most of the hotels were destroyed in 2004 by the tsunami but they have now been rebuilt.

How do I get there?

Fly to Phuket International airport and travel to the island by boat or small plane.

3 This trilogy of films won a total of 17 Oscars, including Best Picture and Best Director.

They are based on the books written by JRR Tolkien. They tell the story of a hobbit, Frodo Baggins, who has to try and destroy a magic ring in order to defeat the evil forces of the Dark Lord Sauron. He is helped on his journey by a group of friends.

Where was it filmed?

The story is set in an imaginary land called Middle Earth. All three films were filmed in _____, which was chosen because of its magnificent and dramatic scenery. The director of the film, Peter Jackson, was born there. The success of the films has attracted thousands of tourists to the country, and last year it was voted the most popular holiday destination by UK travellers.

How do I get there?

You can either fly to Auckland or Wellington, the capital city (where you will be greeted by a huge sign saying 'Welcome to Middle Earth'). From there you can travel to visit all the fantastic film locations, including the battlefields. There are guided tours by road or helicopter.

2 This film was nominated for 11 Oscars and it won seven. It's about a Danish writer (Meryl Streep) who goes to Africa to help her husband run a coffee plantation. To her surprise, she finds herself falling in love with the country, the people, and a mysterious white hunter (Robert Redford). The film was based on an autobiographical novel by the Danish writer, Isak Dinesen, and was directed by the American director Sydney Pollack.

Where was it filmed?

The story is set in _____ in 1914 and was shot on location in the Masai Mara National Park. Apart from the actors, the 'stars' of the film are the breathtaking scenery and the exotic wildlife, which look so wonderful on the big screen. The film also had an unforgettable soundtrack guaranteed to move even the most unromantic.

The film won the Oscar for Best Picture and the following year tourism replaced agriculture as the country's top industry.

How do I get there?

Fly to Nairobi and then drive to the Masai Mara National Reserve where the cast and film crew lived during filming. Then take a three-day safari to see giraffes, elephants, lions, and much more.
