Follow the links above to find listening comprehension activities related to the subject of work.

1. Click on the “quiz” tab situated just below the audio player button. Answer the multiple choice questions as you listen to the recording. Check your answers.
2. Click on the “vocab” tab and study the definitions. Then, do the Vocabulary Challenge situated on the right of the page. Check your answers.
3. Click on the “script” tab and listen to the recording again, following the script at the same time.

Language work

Find the words in the transcripts that mean:

- a) Polyvalent
- b) Faire une offre
- c) Un contractant
- d) Frais/honoraires
- e) Faire un travail d’appoint
- f) Salaire
- g) Comptabilité
- h) Relecture de textes
- i) Un emploi non manuel
- j) Attirer la clientèle

Study the following extracts from the audio:

1. “I would record the audio that’s step one. And then I would edit the audio and then I would transcribe it.”
2. “Would you be interested in having a digital life and just living anywhere in the world?”

Notice how the word “would” is used differently in each extract.

- a) In which extract is “would” used to refer to an imaginary present or future situation?
- b) In which extract is “would” used to refer to repeated past actions (past habits)?
- c) Look at the transcript of “Outsourcing” again. Find another verb form which expresses past habits.
- d) Is there any difference between the way this verb form and “would” are used?
